The boy had taken the gun with him to the fields, where he was herding some cattle for his father, hoping to get a shot at some chickens.

Cuticura Soap, to cleanse, purify and beautify. Cuticura Ointment, to soothe and heal, have been most successful in the severest forms of skin and scalp troubles, but greater still is what they have done in preserving clear skin, clean scalps, and good hair as well as in preventing little skin troubles becoming great ones. This has been brought about by using no other soap for toilet purposes than Cuticura. It is ideal for the complexion because so delicate, creamy and fragrant.

NONPARTISAN LEAGUERS CAN'T BUY CITY BOND

No Money in Treasury to Help Out Municipal Improvements. They Advise

Braddock, N. D., Oct. 2.—The Nonpartisan chiefs in charge of the state's university and school lands funds have advised the village board that it will have no money to invest in village bonds. It does not give any reason for this fact. Heretofore municipal bonds always have found a ready sale with the state, and there never has been a lack of funds with which to purchase them. The village board has called a bond election for the near future and is looking elsewhere for the sale of its bonds.

Mott, N. D., Oct. 2.—Thirty-nine cases, 26 criminal actions and 63 civil suits, are set for trial at the fall term of the Hettinger county district court, which Judge W. C. Crawford of Dickinson will convene tomorrow. One interesting case set for this term and which will not be tried is the manslaughter charge against Jesse Starkweather, who recently made his second escape from the North Dakota state penitentiary. It was during his first alleged sojourn outside the prison walls that he is alleged to have murdered a fellow employee on the Crowley ranch in Dunn county.

HEAVY FINES FOR FATHER'S IGNORING STATE SCHOOL LAW

L. Grimm Goes to Jail in Default of Payment—Americanism Objected to Napoleon, N. D., Oct. 2.—Fines ranging from $24 to $31 were levied against A. Fettig, V. J. Mohr, Anton Schumacher, L. Grimm, George Lubbers, Marcus Schmidt, John Woerheim and Ferdinand Krause, Logan county farmers who refused to send their children to the American public schools. Grimm, in default of payment of a fine of $30.70, was committed to jail. The school laws have been generally ignored in Logan county in the past, and as a result there are scores of children growing to maturity there who cannot speak a word of English and who have no more conception of American principles and American institutions than did their ancestors before they left the old country.

Try Making Your Own Cough Remedy

You can save about $2. and have a better remedy than the ready-made kind. Easily done.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you would hardly have it in all the curative power that is in this simple "home-made" cough syrup, which takes only a few minutes to prepare.

Get from any drug store 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (100 cents), pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. The total cost is about 65 cents and gives you a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for $2.00. Tastes pleasant and never spoils.

This Pinex and sugar syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the nasty throat tickle and heals the sore, irritated membranes that line the throat, chest and bronchial tubes, so gently and so fully that it is really astonishing. A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated extract of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break up severe coughs.

To avoid disappointment, be sure to ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex with full directions," and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

HALLIDAY HOMESTEADER FOUND IT A LONG, LONG TRAIL TO CAPITAL CITY

Hazleton, N. D., Oct. 2.—A demented homesteader, who claimed to be on his way from his claim near Halliday to Bismarck, but who apparently had made a long and unnecessary detour, was taken in custody by Constable S. A. Mikelson at the E. H. Brant farm, which he had infested for several days. The man was light-colored, without a coat, and carried a deadly appearing knife, evidently of his own manufacture. He will be taken before an insanity board at Willton.

How Long Must I Suffer From the Pangs of Rheumatism?

Is there no real relief in sight? Doubtless like other sufferers, you have often asked yourself this question, which continues to remain unanswered. Science has proven that your Rheumatism is caused by a germ in your blood, and the only way to reach it is by a remedy which eliminates and removes these little pain demons from your blood. This explains why liniments and lotions can do no permanent good, for they cannot possibly reach these germs which infest your blood by the millions.

S. S. S. has been successfully used for Rheumatism for more than fifty years. Try it to-day, and you will find yourself at last on the right track to get rid of your Rheumatism. You can get valuable advice about the treatment of your individual case by writing to the Chief Medical Adviser, Swift Specific Co., Dept. D Atlanta, Ga.

SCHOOL CHILDREN EARN MUCH MONEY

Pupils in Three Grades Make $60,000,000 a Year, Government Inquiry Shows.

FARM WORK ATTRACTS MANY

Dissatisfaction Found by Experts to Be Chief Cause of Large Number of Boys and Girls Quitting Classes.

Schoolchildren of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades in the United States earn about $60,000,000 a year by working in summer vacations and out-of-school hours throughout the school year, according to a report recently issued by Uncle Sam's bureau of education. The estimate was based upon figures obtained from an investigation of the cases of 14,301 children, 7,120 boys and 7,121 girls, distributed over eleven states. It was found that of the total number of children investigated, 5,151, or 36 per cent, were employed during the summer vacation, and 8,894, or 62 per cent, during the out-of-school hours throughout the school year.

The children employed in the summer vacation earned a total of $68,342, and from this it was estimated that the children of the three grades mentioned throughout the country earned $60,000,000 from summer employment. The average summer earnings of the children listed amounted to $13.19 each, but the incomes of different children varied greatly. The average weekly earnings of those working during out-of-school hours amounted to $1.51.

Farm Work Attracts Most

Concerning the nature of employment the report said that farm work attracted 33 per cent of the boys and 26 per cent of the girls, housework more than 50 per cent of the girls, delivery and messenger service nearly 25 per cent of the boys, personal service 10 per cent of the boys, and factories, mills and mines, because of strict labor laws, only 2 per cent of all the children.

As a related subject, the report discussed the question of why children leave school, and after treating the desire to earn money and the wish to learn a trade as causes, presented dissatisfaction of the child with the school as the most important cause of the withdrawal of many.

"Dissatisfaction is the dominating factor in school leaving," said the report, "and probably accounts for at least 50 per cent of the withdrawals. It takes many forms. Very often it is due to the inability on the part of both parent and child to realize the value or necessity of further schooling. Many parents believe that the experience gained in some of the common occupations of children is more useful in the preparation for the earning of a living than that gained in the ordinary elementary school. In many cases this is true, and, as investigation has shown, age and work experience are the determining factors with the younger employees rather than school experience.

Backwardness Cause of Leaving.

"Dissatisfaction is sometimes due to a personal dislike to the teacher and to other trivial matters, but by far the most conspicuous source is backwardness, or inability to keep up with other children of the same age. Some of the pupils, of course, are backward because of starting late, but it is evident that a larger proportion of the children fail to keep up with their classes, which necessitates a repetition of the work.

"The solution of the backward pupil problem, therefore, should go a long way toward solving the school-leaving problem and at the same time stop one of the most wasteful leaks in the educational system."

The report suggested that the remedy for the school-leaving problem should provide for remunerative employment for children while attending school, a change in the educational methods aiming to vitalize school work and thus make school more interesting and retardation less common, and the establishment of continuation courses for children who must leave school. The effort to vitalize school work should center, according to the report, about concrete occupational training.

Plan New American Trade Route.

Attention has recently been paid in the French press to a proposed new American trade route into the heart of Europe through France, according to Uncle Sam's consul general at Paris. It is claimed that Nantes would serve America better than Antwerp or Rotterdam because ships in that manner would enjoy a considerably shorter haul and, furthermore, avoid the troublesome channel and North sea, which disproportionately increase the cost of navigation and insurance. The scheme consists in providing a modern canal from Nantes (France) to Basel (Switzerland) which project is considered relatively easy of consummation in view of the already existing system of waterways, especially the Rhone-Rhine canal, the Loire canal, and the Canal du Centre. At Basel the proposed trade route would connect with the Rhine and its system of dependencies which perhaps soon will include the Danube.

Seattle, Washington, under date of August 2, to Haywood, says: "We have the good will of the German people here and we feel that they are in sympathy with our cause. We do not call them Germans, however, but refer to them the same as others, the I. W. W. workers. We are going to carry our points if we have to stop every industry on the Pacific coast. We did not declare war and we have not consented to the working man giving up his liberty and being drafted."

Another excerpt from the book sent by Haywood to Palah, said: "Haywood's Advice. 'Is a strike contemplated by the most indisciplined workers—those of the abject trades? A quart of kerosene or oil, greasy and malodorous poured or scattered on the level of an oven—ad welcome the scabs and scabby owners to come and bake the bread. The bread will be uneatable because the stones will give the bread for a least a month a foul odor of the substance they have absorbed. Results: A useless oven.'"

The Haywood book suggests as a means to paralyze railroads: "It would be well to choose those workers among the most skillful and experienced—who could by a single stroke disable and render useless for some days the material necessary to the regular maintenance of the service and the movement of trains."

Urged Rebellion. Haywood and others are held liable for publication in the newspaper "Solidarity" last August of: "The I. W. W. is more than a labor organization. It is a revolutionary union. We are absolutely and irrevocably dissatisfied with the present system of society. We consider it a useless system and we mean to destroy it."

"Red card men are shrewd, determined, valorous and loyal to the cause they love. There would not be soldiers enough in the country to round them up for arrest, nor jails enough to hold them."

"The I. W. W. is so deeply rooted in America and the world that it can afford to take the chances of an open war, a lot better than the powers that oppose it. Our system of job agitation is such that no power on earth can keep the union from spreading its influence. We have shown the world how to go to jail in huge numbers, exasperate the taxpayers and block every machinery of justice."

"The I. W. W. is fighting for himself—self-preservation, and like the copper chest knows no law."

Call Patriotism "Bunk."

Another issue of the paper, Aug. 25, read: "The refusal of American workers to volunteer and their determined opposition to being drafted into the army demonstrate clearly that war is being recognized as the slave class as a cause of class hatred."

Other issues of the paper read: "It is needless to say the I. W. W. is unalterably opposed to conscription. We consider the bombastic and far fetched talk about freedom and democracy simply so much bunk. The only place we have anything to gain or defend is on the job."

Trees in Shakespeare Gardens.

"Shakespeare" gardens should contain only such plants as are mentioned in Shakespeare's works. These range from apricot trees (apricock) down to the lowly pansy, with columbine, crocus and rose. It should be nearly square, round in design, with a sundial and a place in center with rough stone shading.—Los Angeles Times.

Man and His Weight.

Between forty and fifty a man who allows his weight to remain high is running more danger of an early demise than he would run if he contracted typhoid fever. What is more, if he were stricken with that disease, his chance would be 10 per cent less than normal. A man who is thinner than the average, on the other hand, has less danger of dying in the decade than a man who tips the scales at the normal figure.

What He Wanted to Find Out.

At a certain wedding the happy pair were about to retire, when the younger brother of the bride struck his glass with a knife and said: "Ladies and gentlemen, as the young couple are about to leave us, I will cut my remarks short. I invite each and all of you to take up your glasses, rise to your feet, and—see if one of you has not been sitting on my new hat!"

Two Teams Analyzed

New York, Oct. 2.—While the winning of a pennant and the resultant participation in the World Series is based upon the number of games won during the entire season of league play it is as a rule the final weeks of the schedule in which the championships are clinched. At this period of the play the leading teams of each league are putting forth their greatest efforts in an attempt to capture first place and each day's struggle is fought out to the finish. For this reason it has frequently been said that the true speed of a team in a World Series can be gauged from the power of its play near the point where the pennant was mathematically won.

Based upon this assumption an analysis of the work of the Chicago Americans and the New York Nationals in the closing weeks of the present season should afford a somewhat general outline of the form which may be expected of these two clubs when they meet in the World Series of 1917. On the first day of September the Chicago White Sox were leading in the American League by 4 1-2 games over the Boston Red Sox while the New York Nationals led the Phillies in the senior league by 9 games.

In neither case was the lead so great that the runner-up club did not have a chance to overtake and pass the pace setters. Under the circumstances the New York and Chicago teams were forced to play their best game and despite an occasional defeat the records show that they travelled at high speed up to the very moment that the flag was won beyond peradventure.

During the first twenty days of September the New York Nationals played twenty-three games of which they won sixteen and lost seven, showing a winning average of .696 for that period. In the same number of days the Chicago White Sox played fifteen games of which they won eight and three for an average of .533. In these fifteen games the Chicago players accumulated a total of eighty-two runs to their opponents' fifty-four or an average of close to five and half runs per game. The Giants aggregated eighty runs in twenty-three games for an average of three and a half runs per contest while their opponents collected fifty-six. If the opposing strength were equal in all games which was not the case however.

it might be assumed that the White Sox attack was stronger than that of the Giants while the latter's defense was harder to break through. The fact that these clubs did not, of course, face the same opponents must not be overlooked.

Much stress has been laid upon the respective ability of the pitchers of the clubs and the part that these twirlers will play in the winning of the World Series. For this reason a comparison of their box records during the period under consideration may be helpful to the followers of the game. The Giants have used Sallee, Porritt, Schupp, Tesreau and Benton for an average of 34 3-5 innings each in the twenty day period while Denaree and Anderson have worked an average of 17 1-2 each. For the White Sox Cicotte, Williams and Fisher have borne the brunt of the pitching, having averaged forty innings. Danforth and Russell between them pitched twenty innings, an average of ten innings.

Women's National Defense Committee Of N. D. Creates Six New Departments

The woman's committee of North Dakota of the national defense council at a recent meeting in Fargo added six new departments and will extend the work of the committee all over the state. Chairmen for four of them were appointed. They are: Educational department, Mrs. Mattie Davis, Fargo; Liberty loan, Miss Minnie Nielson, Valley City; home economics, Miss Katharine Jensen, Fargo; war letter service, Mrs. Muir Hunter, Fargo. Other departments, moral and spiritual welfare and public health chairman, will be appointed by the W. C. T. U. and the State Nurses' association respectively.

An important change was made in the board by the election of Mrs. R. E. Webley of Fargo, as general chairman to succeed Mrs. H. G. Vick of Cavalier, resigned. Mrs. Robert Clendenning of Wimbledon resigned the secretaryship and was succeeded by Mrs. H. A. Presler of Fargo.

This woman's committee for North Dakota has for its chief aim the superintending of the patriotic service of the state. The committee is planning to get an estimate of the woman power by having every woman in the state register for service. The registration department will have charge of this work and the war letter service will have charge of the correspondence to the soldiers. This committee has a list of all men of the state in military service. The matter of sending Christmas gifts to the men will also be supervised by this committee. The following resolutions were adopted:

1. The woman's committee of the council of national defense, North Dakota, urges every one to remember that the children of today are the citizens of tomorrow, and that their education, physical and moral welfare is especially significant at this time.
2. Whereas, the government has taken boys out of the protection of home influences, we demand that those in authority regulate the moral conditions of camps to the end that our boys be returned to their mothers as clean as they were sent.
3. Whereas, the energies of women are enlisted in patriotic service, be it resolved that Christmas giving be limited to gifts in the home and to the boys in the fields.
4. Resolved, that we urge all women to sign both the Hoover pledge cards and the registration cards registering the women power of the state. Every woman can serve in some capacity.
5. Resolved that while we women sacrifice cheerfully our homes for the conservation of food, we do emphatically protest against the waste of 130,000,000 bushels of foodstuffs annually in the manufacture of beer and wine.

LOVELY WHITE SKIN!

Strain lemon juice well before mixing and massage face, neck, arms, hands.

By all means, girls, prepare a lemon lotion to keep your skin soft and young looking. You will soon realize that true loveliness does not mean the powdery look or waxen colorlessness of some hot-house flower, but is typified by the velvety softness of your skin, your peach-like complexion and rosy-white hands.

At the cost of a small jar of ordinary cold cream one can prepare a full quart of the most wonderful lemon skin softener and complexion beautifier, by squeezing the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white. Care should be taken to strain the juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan, and is the ideal skin softener, smoothener and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any pharmacy and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quart of this sweetly fragrant lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It should naturally help to whiten, soften, freshen and bring out the roses of a hidden beauty of any skin. It is simply marvelous to smoothen rough, red hands.

The 1917 Tea Gown

Paris originated the teagown years ago, that is her designers introduced art and elegance into the ordinary house dress.

Paris has done many weird things with the teagown with the passing years, but this winter, sobered by the war, she sends to women readers of The Tribune an undraped but graceful creation.

A teagown is rarely what it ought to be, but this one is surely an exception. It is almost a dress, but is as loose and comfortable as a boudoir gown.

The ingredients of this confection are silver lace, palest yellow chiffon and tiny silk roses of assorted colors.

THE COLLAR MAKES THE WINTER COAT

BY BETTY BROWN

New York—The collar makes the coat this winter.

The most modest is at least eight inches wide after it has been turned over and closed snugly about the throat.

The triple collar has just been introduced. It is really a succession of small capes and belongs to the classic redingote.

GLEN ULLIN AUXILIARY

MAKES SPLENDID RECORD

A recent publication of a statement saying that an auxiliary to the Red Cross was being organized in Glen Ullin has brought forth a written report of the splendid work done by that auxiliary which was organized May 7, of this year.

Mrs. H. E. Ross secretary of the auxiliary states that they have their own charter from headquarters and have been working independently since its inception. The membership now numbers about 55 and a balance of $170 now remains in the treasury. The auxiliary also made a contribution of $2,000 to the Red Cross war fund and has completed 500 assorted bandages which are ready for shipment to headquarters.

The auxiliary holds regular weekly meetings in well furnished rooms on the second floor of the city hall. A hallowe'en dancing party is being arranged as one of the benefits to the auxiliary and a finance committee of prominent business men, recently formed, will soon launch a campaign to raise funds. In concluding her report Mrs. Ross says that "We just wanted you to know that Glen Ullin is loyal and patriotic and 'doing her bit' in Red Cross work."

SALVATION ARMY PLANS

SALE TO RAISE FUNDS

A unique plan for the raising of funds to carry on the winter's work has been adopted by the local Salvation army. The army plans to conduct a rummage sale beginning tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in the store room in Main street adjoining the Bismarck bank, in which the Second regiment supply company has been quartered. The building has been loaned by the owner for a three day sale which will begin at 10 o'clock a. m. and last until 5 and resume again in the evening at 7 and last to 9, except the Friday evening sale which will be in the nature of an auction sale.

Merchandise of every description donated by local farmers, and friends will be on sale at moderate prices. The goods will be displayed in six booths. One booth will offer confectionery and fresh baked articles of every description. A second booth will provide fresh fruits and vegetables and canned goods while the third booth will contain refreshments.

Booth No. 4 will have baby garments and fancy goods and the fifth booth will display a miscellaneous array of articles from which something desirable and necessary can be chosen. The sixth booth will probably be the most novel of all, providing as it will a means of amusement as well as satisfaction. Parcel post packages received from friends all over the country and Canada will be sold unopened. Each package will have its valuation marked on the outside so every investor will receive full value for their money, though what they may will be a question.

SPECIAL SERVICE FOR

"IN AGAIN—OUT AGAIN."

Doug Fairbanks has taken unto himself a regular trainer in the person of Bull Montana, erstwhile pugilist, wrestler and ringside instructor. Any one familiar with Doug's work on the screen can readily appreciate the fact that he requires a trainer to keep in form. Bull is not only a trainer, but he is also somewhat of an actor, as demonstrated in the current Fairbanks-Arcraft picture, "In Again—Out Again," at the Bismarck theater again tonight.

The meeting between Fairbanks and Montana came about in New York recently when the latter applied at the studio in response to a call for his particular type. Clad in his Sunday suit Bull introduced himself to Doug and was immediately engaged. An hour later he looked as though he had been in a wreck.

"What happened, Bull," asked Fairbanks. The former idol of the ring spluttered and with flushed face replied, "A tough guy tried to make fun of you and I just cleaned him—dat's all."

"What did he say?"
"Oh, the fresh, not only said dat you take all your athletic stunts, and I happen to know better. I've seen you in action and tried to tell him dat, but he wouldn't listen. The best thing I could do was to let him have my right just for luck."

"But you seem to have received quite a little yourself," exclaimed the star as he gazed at the discolored eye of the exponent of the self-defense art.
"Not from the guy he hit though," chimed in one of the property boys. "He and two others are in the hospital now, but it didn't take long for Bull to clean up the gang." Can anyone blame the star of "In Again—Out Again" for immediately placing Montana under a five-year contract in the capacity of athletic trainer and general reserve?

GREATER STRENGTH Fewer Spoonfuls

BIGGER SAVINGS

The value of baking powder is based on its leavening strength. You can't judge it by the size of the can—or by the amount you get for your money. You must estimate it by the amount of baking powder used in each baking and the results you get.

is the greatest value ever offered in Baking Powder—it has greater raising "force"—it goes further than most of the other brands. You use only a rounded or heaping teaspoonful where others call for two teaspoonfuls or more.

But Baking Powder is not all you'll save when using Calumet. You save baking materials. Calumet never fails. The last level teaspoonful is as powerful as the first. Calumet is perfectly manufactured—keeps perfectly—and is moderate in price.

You save when you buy it—You save when you use it

One trial will satisfy you of these facts—and demonstrate beyond doubt that "Calumet spells economy."

Your grocer sells it on a guarantee of money back if you are not pleased with results.

Calumet contains only such ingredients as have been approved officially by the U. S. Food Authorities.

You will say that, too, when you see our new Fall Gossards. Wonderful corsets—wonderful values. No woman can afford—particularly in times when wise economy is more than a watch-word—to ignore the savings offered by these Gossards—savings without sacrifice—because the simplest gown is given grace, distinction, vogue, over the fashionable silhouette of a Gossard. The most expensive gown loses in effect if worn over an ill-fitting corset.

Remember, please, that the Gossard—the original front-lacing corset—gently and with perfect comfort molds the figure into the new straight back and hip lines and smartly indicated waist. We have the Gossard that will enable you to become the ideal of your type—one of the nine ideal figures.

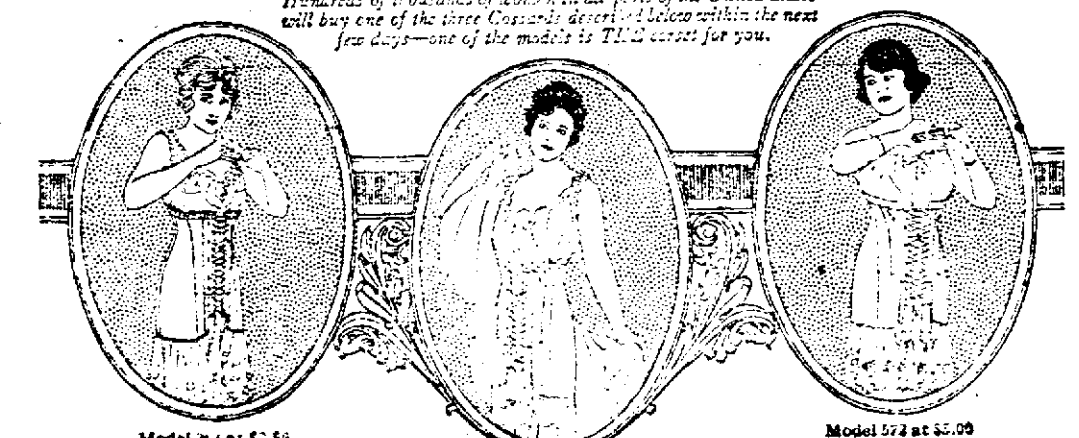

Our corsetiers are ready to serve you, to help you select, or to fit you properly if you desire.

Our new Gossard booklet—we will be pleased to give you a copy—illustrates the nine ideal figure types together with representative corset models. It enables you to determine your corset requirements at a glance.

Idah McGlone Gibson Gets Inside Dope From McGraw

By Idah McGlone Gibson.
 Idah McGlone Gibson interviewed John McGraw.

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 2.—It has been four years since I last interviewed John McGraw for the daily Tribune. I hope I have changed as little as he has in that time.

His hair, the Irish hair that turns white early, has grown just a bit more grizzled, and his brown eyes a bit more optimistic—that's all.

"Twenty-nine years is a long time to be in the game," he said as his eyes wandered over the field to where boys of the selective draft were gathered—"longer than most of those boys can count their entire lives."

New York's "selects" have grown up with the Giants," I remarked, and "most of them probably have coveted your position more than that of the president of the United States."

"McGraw's eyes twinkled, and he answered soberly, 'I wish I were going with them.'"

"In that also, you and the president hook up together," I answered.

Again John McGraw smiled—a smile that began brilliantly at his eyes and faded to ghostly vagueness as it reached his mouth. John McGraw is a very serious Irishman.

"You have the reputation of always having the most temperamental ball club in existence," I ventured.

"In my nearly three decades of baseball I have learned one thing thoroughly—a good ball player must be temperamental. Just as an artist, a musician or a writer must have temperament. He must love the game more than the candle," he answered.

"And how do you make a man's temperament work for you?" I asked.

"By ignoring it," he answered. "I must make every man think he HAS no temperament, even while making him use that most desirable quality in a ballplayer to its fullest capacity."

"What man has been the most temperamental on your ball team?"

"I'd rather not say, but I'll tell you of the man who has least and is the one exception that proves the rule."

"Mathewson," I interrupted.

"Yes, Mathewson is always to be depended upon. When he knows a thing is to be done he just does it. Some men play best when the team is winning and some play best when spurred by defeat. A baseball manager must not only be a 'good picker,' but he must study each man individually and handle all differently."

"At the end of a season with a winning team you have to be more than ever on your guard. Every man is a bundle of nerves, drawn taut. At this time every little prejudice, every little idiosyncrasy, every little vein of superstition is laid bare and raw. You get to know your men better then than at any other time during the season."

"What nationality makes the best ballplayer?" I asked.

"I cannot answer that. I think perhaps the Irish are the quickest thinkers and the readiest to take a fighting chance, but I would not like a team made up entirely of Irish. You must have temperaments like the German to ballast the Irish. Truly I think a winning ball team must be a melting pot of all nationalities. This year there are more Germans among the Giants than any other nationality and they are just as temperamental as any other but they do not show it in just the same way."

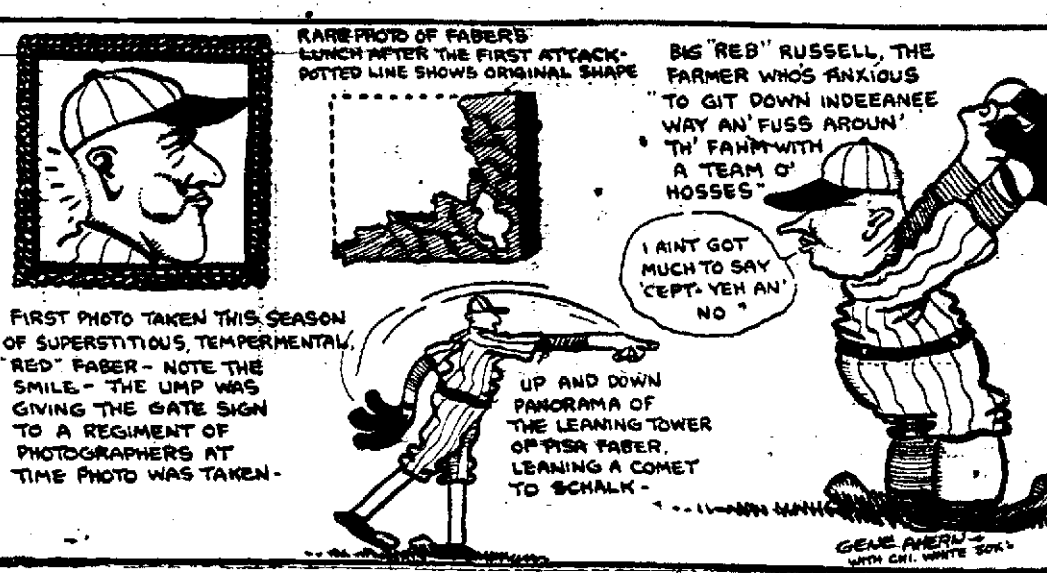

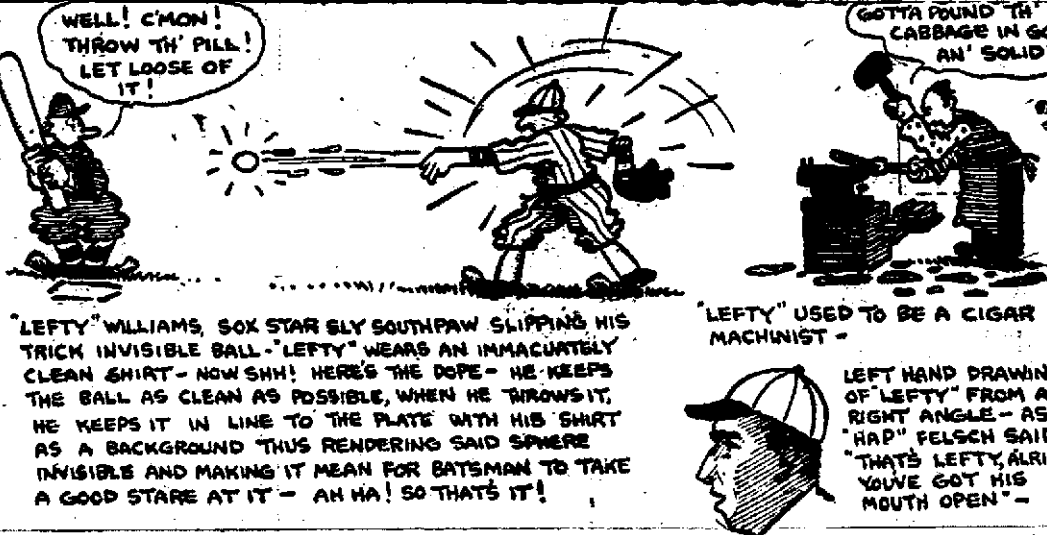

John McGraw himself is a very temperamental Irishman, fine to meet when you get to him, but gun shy of the woman interviewer who finally had to stalk him where 10,000 people must observe that an Irishman could not be in polite to a woman.

AIRHOSES CUT ON N. D. FOOD CARS

Fargo, N. D. Oct. 2.—Special Agents of railroad companies in North Dakota are investigating reports today that an organized gang of men are operating throughout the northwest slashing air hose connections on freight and refrigerator cars in an effort to hamper the movement of foodstuffs, following reports received here from Larimore, N. D., that 34 air hoses on refrigerator cars there were cut Saturday night. Railroad agents said that this latest effort to hamper the movement of food would be severely dealt with.

AHERN FINDS THERE'S NOTHING WRONG WITH RED FABER'S CHEW

HERZOG IS QUESTION MARK OF SERIES; HIS PRESENCE OR ABSENCE MAY DECIDE IT

BY TOM SWOPE
 (Sporting Editor, the Cincinnati Post.)

When it comes to taking things apart and finding out what makes them run Christy Mathewson, manager of the Cincinnati Reds, has a few superiors in baseball.

Matty's mind is of an analytical turn. So, when he turned to the forthcoming series between the Giants and the White Sox and began dishing it out in advance, there was no hit or miss talking on his part.

Matty has been through the world series mill himself four times and knows what makes the wheels turn around.

"To begin with," he said, "there are two things entering into this series that may prove the turning point. One is the so-called 'shine' ball. The other is Buck Herzog."

"Herzog is a great world series player. If he isn't in the games or is not in the best of shape, New York will be greatly weakened. There's a fire and dash about Buck that puts pep in a club. He's the best little world series pace maker in the business."

"The 'shine' ball is new stuff to the Giants. Hod Eller, one of 1912, and I believe that club my young pitchers, is the only hurler in our league whom I knew to have used the 'shine.' Eller has not been experimenting with it and, standing the catchers on their heads."

"The 'shine' is just the reverse of the 'emery' ball. In throwing the 'emery' a pitcher roughens a spot on the cover. The contact of the air against this roughened surface causes the ball to take peculiar breaks, and in the hands of a pitcher who can control it it is almost unhittable."

"In pitching the 'shine' the hurler smoothes a spot on the ball until it is so slick that the rest of the surface is so rough in comparison to the smooth spot that it takes the air the same as an 'emery' ball. Pitchers of the 'shine' though, grip the surface of the ball just the reverse of the proper way to grip the 'emery,' and this causes the ball to break in the opposite direction."

"I haven't the least doubt but that Cicotte and Danforth will pitch the 'shine' ball in the world series. If the 'shine' is barred the Giants are likely to do some tell and lofty clubbing. There isn't a regular in the Giant lineup who has a decided weakness. Kauff, Zim, Holke, Fletcher, Robertson, Burns, McCarty and Herzog all are liable to hit anything that is pitched up to them.

"Most of the White Sox are players with whom I am familiar. Schalk and Collins are as good as they come. Schalk is a man on whom the Giants won't steal many bases without the batter giving the runner a good deal of assistance. I don't expect either team to score less with any wild running but I believe the Giants will try some hit-and-run stuff early to find out if they can get away with it. If they find they cannot they probably will do as they did into this series that may prove the turning point. One is the so-called 'shine' ball. The other is Buck Herzog."

"Benton and Schupp will show the White Sox more stuff than they have seen for a long time. From what I have been able to gather on the White Sox the team certainly is no better than the Boston Red Sox of 1912, and I believe that club would have had its troubles beating the Giants of 1917 in a world to have used the 'shine.' Eller has not been experimenting with it and, standing the catchers on their heads."

"Hooper and Lewis certainly had something on the present form of the other White Sox gardeners."

"Defensively the Giants are a good team, but it is their offense, the ability of every man in the line-up to crack the ball squarely on the nose, that is likely to be their greatest asset against the White Sox."

"One of the fellows I wouldn't be surprised to see turn out a big star in the series is Slim Sallee. This year he is hitting up around .240 in the regular averages. There are only two or three pitchers in the league batting better than he and mighty few pitching better."

BIG CHIEF HAS ONE PUT OVER BY HIS FRIENDS

Presentation of Solid Gold Badge
As Token of Appreciation
Takes Him by Surprise

"This seldom that 'Big Chris' Martenson, Bismarck's 250 pound chief of police, does not prove equal to an emergency, but he was swept off his feet this afternoon when a delegation of friends, headed by W. W. Savers, captain of the night guard at the state penitentiary, burst in upon him at the police station and presented him with a handsome solid gold chief's badge.

"Big Chris" had it coming, but he didn't know that it was en route, and the presentation took him completely by surprise. The massive badge, fashioned from two kinds of solid gold, is a beautiful emblem which will show up to effect on his yard-wide chest. The committee which arranged the presentation in recognition of the splendid work which Chief Martenson has done at the head of the capital city police force included Capt. Savers, O. W. Roberts, head of the United States weather bureau service for North Dakota, J. A. Haney, state attorney, F. E. McCurdy and other friends and associates.

"Big Chris" managed to say in reply only that the badge would be all ways on the job, a terror to wrong doers, and a protection and solace to law-abiding citizens. Martenson has made an unusual record as chief of police. He has handled some of the biggest cases in the city's history, and has never failed to get his man.

TO DISCUSS NEEDS

OF CIVILIAN RELIEF.

Representatives from Mandan, Washburn and other towns points have been asked to meet him here.

HOW ABOUT IT FRAZIER?

Townley had Governor Frazier presiding while he himself was shouting encouragement to Senator LaFollette, besides giving the senator a slap of approval on the shoulder during his treasonable speech, and how he is trying to back away by leaving blame on the farmer, claiming that it was the audience that goaded him to make disloyal remarks—Kommars News.

Rheumatism

A Home Cure by One Who Had It

In the spring of 1903 I was attacked by Muscular and Inflammatory Rheumatism. I suffered as only those who have it know, for over three years. I tried remedy after remedy, and doctor after doctor, but such relief as I received was only temporary. Finally, I found a remedy that cured me completely, and it has never returned. I have given it to a number who were terribly afflicted and even bedridden with Rheumatism and it effected a cure in every case.

I want every sufferer from any form of rheumatic trouble to try this marvelous healing powder. Don't send a cent; simply mail your name and address and I will send it free to try. After you have used it and it has proven itself to be that long-sought-for means of curing your Rheumatism, you may send the price of it, one dollar, but, understand, I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. Isn't that fair? Why suffer any longer when positive relief is thus offered you free? Don't delay. Write today.

PAVING GOING UP; EXTENSION GIVEN FORD CO.

Asphalt Costs 28 Cents More Per Yard Than When Original Contract Was Let

WILL NOT BE POSSIBLE TO FINISH THIS FALL

Paving, like other luxuries and necessities, is going up. The Ford Paving Co., whose bids on paving four blocks surrounding the county building were opened by the city commission last evening, wants $218 per square yard for asphalt paving, which it contracted to put in last fall for $190, the price at which the work in the second district was awarded. This difference of 28 cents per square yard will mean an added cost of about $1 per front foot to property holders on the four streets affected. The Ford company last evening also submitted bids of $3.90 and $4.10 per square yard on two different qualities of creosote block. No bids were submitted on bitulithic.

No action was taken by the city commission last evening, inasmuch as time must be allowed for the property holders to make a selection of materials. The matter will be brought to the attention of the Bismarck county commission at its meeting tomorrow. The county owns 50 per cent of the frontage affected. There is a question whether the work, if the contract is let within the next two weeks, can be done this fall. Secretary McGuire of the paving company appeared before the commission last evening and called attention to the fact that the original contract called for the completion of work in district No. 2 on Oct. 1. Litigation which prevented the beginning of work early in the spring, difficulty in obtaining materials and a scarcity of labor all held up the work until there is now a question as to whether it can be completed before cold weather sets in. He therefore asked and obtained an extension of the time limit until July 1, 1918. If the contract for the paving around the court house is let an effort may be made to finish the work this fall, or it may be left until next spring, and all energies be concentrated on the district as originally constituted.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr.
Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to trust the liver and bowels complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brains and how they "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c a box. All druggists.

Salaries Fixed.
By resolution, salaries for the ensuing year were fixed as follows:

City commissioners, $10 per month; city auditor, $125; treasurer, $25; attorney, $80; assessor, $125; engineer, $60; overseer of poor, $50; health officer, $50; milk inspector, $37.50; chief of fire department, $75;

TOBACCO HABIT EASILY OVERCOME

A New Yorker, of wide experience, has written a book telling how the tobacco or snuff habit may be easily and quickly banished with delightful benefit. The author, Edward J. Woods, 1423 P. Station E. New York City, will mail his book free on request.

The health improves wonderfully after tobacco craving is conquered. Calmness, tranquil sleep, clear eyes, normal appetite, good digestion, mental vigor, strong memory and a general gain in efficiency are among the many benefits reported. Get rid of that nervous, irritable feeling; no more need of pipe, cigar, cigarette, snuff or chewing tobacco to pacify morbid desire.

Alley Wanted.
A petition from George F. WBL, W. F. LaBr and other property-owners in the block bounded by Thayer, Reaser, Fourth and Third, asking for the opening of an alley, for which they dedicated the necessary footage, and the paving of this alley was referred to the city attorney and city engineer.

City Attorney O'Hare reported further progress on the river road difficulties, and the Northern Pacific through Supt. W. E. Berner advised that gates would be installed at the Third street crossing as soon as possible in compliance with the commission's recent resolution. Commissioner Best brought up the advisability of spreading on the special assessment rolls the cost of freeing sidewalks from snow last winter. Inasmuch as the street commissioner had failed to keep an account of the cost of performing this duty for delinquent householders, the commission deferred action on the matter.

The police magistrate reported the collection of $145 in fines during the month of September, his office being more-proving more than self-supporting.
